Australia is boycotting the UN negotiations to ban nuclear weapons. Please join the:

WOMEN'S MARCH TO BAN THE BOMB!

Saturday 17th June 2017 at 12-3pm
Macquarie St, Parramatta, Sydney

This event is led by women and inclusive of all genders, ages, sexualities, cultures and faiths. Join us on this national day of action! Featuring: Dr Helen Caldicott, Rose Lester (Yankunytjatjara-Anangu), Asian Women at Work Drumming Group, Women’s International League for Peace and Freedom NSW, ICAN Australia and more.

www.icanw.org/day-of-action
www.womenbanthebomb.org
More than 130 countries have begun negotiating a new treaty to outlaw nuclear weapons, heralding the end of two decades of paralysis in multilateral nuclear disarmament efforts. So far, Australia is standing with the nuclear armed states and boycotting the negotiations, despite overwhelming public support for a ban.

Australia has signed the treaties to ban chemical and biological weapons, landmines and cluster munitions.

As a country that has experienced the devastating and long-lasting impact of nuclear testing, our Government must now support a ban on nuclear weapons!

Meet at 12pm outside the office of the Defence Minister, Marise Payne, at the Jessie Street Centre on Macquarie St, Parramatta.

Bring a plate to share at the park afterwards, as speeches & music continue.

The Women’s March to Ban the Bomb is a women-led initiative building on movements at the forefront of the resistance to weapons and war. This March will take place in solidarity with the New York Women’s March to Ban the Bomb, organised by WILPF program Reaching Critical Will.

Contact: wilpf.nsw@wilpf.org.au / gem@icanw.org